Dear [Homeowner Name],

I am writing to provide a critical update regarding the real estate market in [Neighborhood/Area Name].

We have just listed a property at [Property Address], and the market response has been immediate. Currently, housing inventory in our area is at a critical low. There are far more qualified buyers than there are available homes for sale.

What this means for you:

- Properties are receiving multiple offers within days of hitting the market.
- Home values in [Neighborhood Name] have reached a new peak.
- You may have significantly more equity in your home than you realize.

Because of our recent listing, I have a list of active buyers who are specifically looking for a home in this immediate area but have been unable to find one.

If you have considered selling, or are simply curious about the current market value of your property in these conditions, please contact me at [Phone Number] or [Email Address].

Best regards,
