Dear [Parent Name],

Congratulations on your teenager reaching the major milestone of getting their driver's license. While this is an exciting time for their independence, it often brings new concerns for a parent regarding safety and financial security.

As your family enters this new chapter, it is the ideal time to review your life insurance coverage. Ensuring your family's future is protected is more important than ever as your household dynamics and risks change.

We offer specialized life insurance reviews designed to:

- Provide financial security for your children's education.
- Ensure mortgage and debt protection for your home.
- Offer peace of mind while your teen is on the road.
- Adjust coverage limits to match your growing family needs.

Protecting your family's future starts with a simple conversation. Please contact us at [Phone Number] or reply to this email to schedule a brief consultation.

Sincerely,
