Dear [Candidate Name],

Thank you for the time you invested in interviewing for the [Job Title] position at [Company Name]. We enjoyed learning more about your background and accomplishments.

While we were very impressed with your qualifications, I am writing to inform you that we are unable to move forward with your application at this time. Due to current budget constraints, we are unfortunately unable to provide the financial resources required for work authorization sponsorship for this specific role.

This decision is based solely on our internal budget limitations regarding visa sponsorship and is not a reflection of your skills or potential. We will keep your resume on file should our budget situation change or if a role opens that aligns with your current work authorization status.

We wish you the very best in your job search and your future professional endeavors.

Best regards,

[Your Name]
