Re: Demand for Payment of Alimony Arrears - [Case Number]

Dear [Obligor Name],

This letter serves as formal notice that you are in default of your alimony obligations as ordered by the [Name of Court] in the Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage dated [Date of Order].

As of [Current Date], you have failed to make the required payments for the following period(s): [List Months/Dates]. The total amount of overdue alimony currently owed is $[Total Amount].

Your failure to comply with the court's order is a serious matter. Please consider this a final demand for payment. You are requested to remit the full amount of $[Total Amount] to [Payee Name] by no later than [Deadline Date, e.g., 7-10 days from receipt].

If payment is not received in full by the date specified above, I will have no choice but to initiate legal proceedings against you. This will include filing a Motion for Civil Contempt and Enforcement with the court.

Be advised that if you are found in willful contempt of the court order, the court may impose various sanctions, which can include:

- Entry of a judgment for the full arrears plus interest;
- Wage garnishment or income withholding orders;
- Seizure of assets or tax refunds;
- Suspension of driver's or professional licenses;
- Incarceration (jail time);
- An order requiring you to pay all of my attorney's fees and court costs associated with this enforcement action.

Please govern yourself accordingly and ensure the funds are delivered by the deadline to avoid further litigation.

Sincerely,
