RE: Notice of Delinquency and Intent to Enforce Alimony Order

Dear [Obligor Name],

This letter serves as formal notice regarding your failure to pay court-ordered alimony (spousal support) as required by the judgment entered on [Date of Original Order] in the [Name of Original Court] under Case Number [Case Number].

As of [Date], you are in arrears in the amount of $[Total Amount Owed].

Please be advised that under the Uniform Interstate Family Support Act (UIFSA), which has been adopted by all 50 states, an alimony order issued in one state is enforceable in any other state where the obligor resides. This law allows for the registration of the foreign support order for enforcement in your current jurisdiction of [Name of State where Obligor lives].

Failure to remit the full amount of $[Total Amount Owed] by [Deadline Date] will result in immediate legal action. Enforcement measures under UIFSA and state law may include, but are not limited to:

- Income withholding and wage garnishment;
- Seizure of bank accounts or personal property;
- Reporting the debt to credit bureaus;
- Interception of federal and state tax refunds;
- Contempt of court proceedings, which may include fines or incarceration;
- Recovery of all legal fees and court costs incurred during this process.

Please send the full payment to the following address:
