Dear [Ex-Spouse's Name],

This letter serves as formal notice that you are in default of your alimony obligations as mandated by the Final Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage entered by the [Name of Court] on [Date of Judgment].

Pursuant to the court order, you are required to pay alimony in the amount of $[Amount] per [Week/Month]. As of [Date], our records indicate that you have failed to make the following payments:

- [Date Payment Was Due] - $[Amount Due]
- [Date Payment Was Due] - $[Amount Due]
- [Date Payment Was Due] - $[Amount Due]

The total principal amount currently in arrears is $(Total Amount). [Optional: In addition to the principal, interest is accruing at the statutory rate of (Percentage)% per annum.]

Demand is hereby made that you remit the full amount of $(Total Amount) to me by [Deadline Date, e.g., 10 days from the date of this letter]. Payments should be made via [Specify Method, e.g., Certified Check, Zelle, or State Disbursement Unit].

Failure to cure this delinquency by the aforementioned date will leave me with no choice but to pursue formal legal action to enforce the judgment. This may include, but is not limited to:

- Filing a Motion for Civil Contempt and Enforcement;
- Seeking an Income Withholding Order (Wage Garnishment);
- Requesting the seizure of assets or placing liens on property;
- Requesting that the court order you to pay my reasonable attorney's fees and court costs associated with these enforcement efforts.

Please govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,
