Dear Neighbor,

I am writing to share an urgent update regarding the real estate market in [Neighborhood Name]. Currently, we are experiencing a significant shortage of available homes for sale.

Buyer demand for our area remains incredibly high, but there are almost no listings to meet that demand. Because of this inventory shortage, well-maintained homes in our neighborhood are currently commanding premium prices and attracting multiple offers.

If you have been thinking about moving, downsizing, or relocating, now is an ideal time to maximize your return. You may be surprised by the current market value of your property.

I have active buyers specifically looking for a home like yours.

If you would like to know what your home is worth in today's market, or if you are curious about how this shortage affects your equity, please feel free to reach out. There is no obligation, and I am happy to provide a complimentary market analysis.

Best regards,
