Dear [Attorney Name],

My name is [Your Name] and I am a licensed real estate professional specializing in [Your Local Area/Niche].

I am reaching out to introduce myself as a resource for your family law practice. I understand that divorce proceedings often involve complex real estate decisions, including property valuations, the sale of marital homes, or one party buying out the other. These situations require a sensitive, neutral, and efficient approach to ensure the best outcome for your clients.

I provide the following services specifically for clients in transition:

- Complimentary Comparative Market Analysis (CMA) for asset division.
- Experience in managing high-conflict listings with neutral communication.
- Resources for repairs, staging, and quick-market preparation.
- Guidance on downsizing or purchasing a new residence post-decree.

My goal is to simplify the real estate component of your cases, allowing you to focus on the legal strategy. I would welcome the opportunity to introduce myself briefly over coffee or a short phone call to see how I can be of service to your firm.

Thank you for your time and for the work you do for our community.

Sincerely,
