RE: CEASE AND DESIST INTERFERENCE WITH CO-COUNSEL AGREEMENT

Dear [Recipient Name],

This firm represents [Your Firm Name] in matters regarding our contractual relationships and professional engagements. It has come to our attention that you are currently engaging in conduct that interferes with the valid Co-Counsel Agreement existing between [Your Firm Name] and [Co-Counsel's Name/Firm] regarding the matter of [Case Name/Client Name].

Specifically, it is our understanding that you have [describe specific actions, e.g., attempted to induce co-counsel to breach the fee-sharing arrangement / attempted to exclude our firm from case communications / disparaged our firm to the client].

Please be advised that the aforementioned Co-Counsel Agreement is a legally binding contract. Your actions constitute tortious interference with contractual relations. Such conduct causes immediate and irreparable harm to our professional standing and our financial interest in this litigation.

DEMAND IS HEREBY MADE that you immediately:

- Cease and desist from any and all communications with [Co-Counsel Name] or [Client Name] that encourage or facilitate a breach of our Co-Counsel Agreement;
- Refrain from any further interference with our firm's role as co-counsel in the [Case Name] matter;
- Provide written assurance by [Date/Time] that you will comply with these demands.

Failure to comply with this demand will leave us with no alternative but to pursue all available legal remedies, including seeking injunctive relief and damages for tortious interference, as well as reporting this conduct to the [State] State Bar for investigation into potential ethical violations.

Govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,
