RE: CEASE AND DESIST - COORDINATED CYBER HARASSMENT AND MOB ATTACKS

To [Name/Username],

This letter serves as a formal demand for you to immediately cease and desist from all activities constituting coordinated cyber harassment, online mobbing, and targeted defamation against [Your Name / Company Name].

It has come to my attention that you are actively leading, participating in, or encouraging a coordinated effort to harass, threaten, and intimidate me across various digital platforms, including but not limited to: [List Platforms, e.g., Twitter, Reddit, Discord].

Your actions, including [List specific behaviors, e.g., doxxing, mass reporting, inciting others to send threats, or spreading false information], are unlawful. These activities may constitute violations of state and federal laws regarding cyberstalking, harassment, intentional infliction of emotional distress, and tortious interference with business relations.

I hereby demand that you:

- Immediately cease all direct and indirect contact with me.
- Stop inciting, coordinating, or encouraging third parties to target or harass me.
- Remove all defamatory or private information regarding me from any platform under your control.
- Cease any further disparagement or coordinated "dog-piling" campaigns.

Be advised that I am documenting all instances of harassment, including screenshots, IP logs, and metadata. This evidence will be used should legal action or law enforcement intervention become necessary.

This letter constitutes your formal notice to stop these activities. If you continue to engage in or coordinate these attacks, I will not hesitate to pursue all available legal remedies, including seeking injunctive relief and monetary damages.

Govern yourself accordingly.

Sincerely,

[Your Signature]
