Dear [Client Name],

Happy one-month home anniversary!

I hope you are settling in well and that your new house is already starting to feel like home. It has been a month since your closing date, and I wanted to check in to see how everything is going.

If you have any questions about the neighborhood, need recommendations for local service providers, or require assistance with anything related to your property, please don't hesitate to reach out. I am always happy to help.

I hope you are enjoying making memories in your new space. I look forward to staying in touch!

Best regards,
