Dear [Client Name],

I hope you are settling in well and enjoying your new home at [Property Address]. It is hard to believe that ninety days have already passed since your closing date.

I am reaching out to see how everything is going. Now that you have had a few months to experience the home and the neighborhood, I would love to hear how you are liking the space. If you have any questions regarding your home or need recommendations for local contractors, landscapers, or services, please do not hesitate to ask.

My goal is to be your lifelong real estate resource, not just your agent for a single transaction. If there is anything I can do to assist you, your friends, or your family with real estate needs in the future, please keep me in mind.

I wish you continued happiness in your new home.

Best regards,
