

Subject: Helping your friends maximize their home equity

Dear [Client Name],

I hope you are doing well and enjoying your current home. As your trusted real estate advisor, I am reaching out because I have recently helped several "empty nesters" in our area successfully transition into the next chapter of their lives.

Many homeowners currently find themselves with more space than they need and a significant amount of built-up equity. By downsizing to a home that better fits their current lifestyle, they are able to lower maintenance tasks, reduce monthly expenses, and unlock cash for retirement or travel.

If you have friends, family members, or neighbors who are considering moving to a smaller home or a more manageable property, I would be honored to assist them. My goal is to make the process of selling a long-time family home and finding a new space as seamless and profitable as possible.

Please feel free to pass along my contact information or let me know if there is someone I should reach out to directly. I promise to provide them with the same high level of service you have come to expect from me.

Thank you for your continued trust and support.

Best regards,
