Dear [Client Name],

It was such a pleasure attending your housewarming party last weekend. Thank you for inviting me to see how you have turned your new house into a beautiful home. It was wonderful to see you settled in and enjoying the space with your friends and family.

As we discussed briefly during the event, my business thrives on working with great people like you. If you have any friends, family members, or colleagues who are considering buying or selling a home, I would be honored if you shared my contact information with them.

I have enclosed a few of my business cards for you to keep on hand. I promise to provide any referrals you send my way with the same level of dedicated service that I provided to you.

Thank you again for your trust and for the lovely afternoon. Please don't hesitate to reach out if you need anything at all regarding your new home.

Warm regards,
