Dear [Client Name],

As the year comes to a close, I wanted to take a moment to reach out and thank you for your continued trust and support. It has been an incredible year in real estate, and I am grateful for the opportunity to have worked with clients like you.

I am proud to share that this year I was able to help [Number] families achieve their real estate goals. Whether it was finding a dream home or successfully selling a property, each transaction represents a milestone that I am honored to have been a part of. My business continues to grow because of the wonderful people I serve.

As I look ahead to the new year, I am excited to help even more people navigate this market. My business is built on referrals from valued clients and friends. If you know of any family members, friends, or colleagues who are thinking about buying or selling a home in the coming months, please keep me in mind.

I promise to provide them with the same level of dedicated service and expertise that I provided to you. Simply passing along my contact information or introducing us via email would be the greatest compliment I could receive.

Thank you again for being a part of my success this year. I wish you and your family a healthy and prosperous New Year!

Best regards,
