Dear [Recipient Name],

As the flowers begin to bloom, the spring real estate market is officially heating up. I am reaching out to provide you with a brief update on the current trends in our local area and to offer my professional expertise should you or someone you know have real estate needs this season.

Currently, our market is experiencing [mention a quick trend, e.g., low inventory / steady price growth / increased buyer demand]. This makes spring an excellent time to list a home, as buyers are active and looking to move before the summer months.

If you are curious about the current value of your home in today's market, I would be happy to provide you with a complimentary, no-obligation market analysis. Whether you are thinking of selling, buying, or just want to stay informed, I am here to help.

Most of my business comes from the referrals of valued clients and friends like you. If you know a neighbor, friend, or family member who is considering a move, please feel free to pass along my contact information. I promise to provide them with the same high level of service and dedication that I offer to all my clients.

Thank you for your continued trust and support. I hope you have a wonderful spring season!

Best regards,
