

Dear [Seller Name],

It has been a pleasure representing your property at [Property Address]. As we continue our efforts to secure the ideal buyer for your residence, I would value your perspective on our progress thus far.

To ensure my service remains aligned with your expectations and the exclusive nature of this listing, could you please provide feedback on the following:

- Your satisfaction with the current marketing materials and property presentation.
- Your impressions of the caliber of prospective buyers we have hosted.
- Any adjustments you would like to see in our communication or showing schedule.
- Your thoughts on the current market feedback we have received.

Your insights are essential to refining our strategy and achieving a successful sale at the premium value your home deserves. Please let me know if you would prefer to discuss this via a brief phone call or if you would like to reply directly to this email.

Thank you for your continued trust.

Best regards,
