

Dear [Client Name],

Congratulations again on your new home! It was a pleasure assisting you with your out-of-state move to [City/State]. I know that buying a home from a distance comes with unique challenges, and I am so glad we were able to find the perfect property for you.

I am reaching out to ask for a small favor. Since many out-of-state buyers rely heavily on online research to find a trustworthy local agent, would you mind sharing your experience by leaving a brief review on my Google Business profile?

Your feedback helps other families feel confident when navigating a long-distance relocation. You can leave your review by clicking the link below:
