

Subject: Quick favor? / Celebrating your amazing home sale!

Hi [Client Name],

Congratulations once again on the incredible result we achieved for your property! Selling for [Dollar Amount/Percentage] above the asking price is a huge win, and I am so happy I could help you reach that goal.

I am currently putting together a short video for TikTok to show how we achieved this record-breaking result. Would you be open to recording a quick 30-second video testimonial on your phone?

If you are up for it, you could mention:

- What it felt like to see those over-asking offers come in.
- Your favorite part about working with me.
- One piece of advice for other sellers in this market.

Feel free to keep it casual! You can just record it vertically on your phone and text it to me at [Your Phone Number] or email it back here.

Thank you for trusting me with your home sale. I look forward to hearing from you!

Best regards,
