

Dear [Client Name],

It was such a pleasure working with you to finally get your home at [Property Address] sold! As you know, the journey started with the frustration of an expired listing under a previous agent, but I am thrilled we were able to turn things around and achieve a successful closing.

I am reaching out because I would love to share your success story with other homeowners who may be currently facing the same challenges you did. Many sellers feel discouraged when their home doesn't sell the first time, and hearing about your experience could give them the confidence to try again.

Would you be willing to provide a brief testimonial or "success story" about our work together? Specifically, it would be helpful if you could mention:

- The challenges you faced before we started working together.
- What you felt I did differently to get your home sold.
- How you felt once the "Sold" sign finally went up.

You can simply reply to this email with your thoughts, or I can send you a link to my preferred review platform. I would be honored to feature your story on my website and marketing materials.

Thank you again for trusting me with your home sale. I wish you all the best in your next chapter!

Best regards,
