Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to you today with sincere respect for the circumstances you and your family may be facing. I noticed that the property located at [Property Address] was recently removed from the market without being sold.

I understand that handling a property during probate is a significant responsibility, often accompanied by emotional and logistical challenges. When a listing expires, it can add unnecessary stress to an already difficult time.

I specialize in helping families navigate the complexities of inherited property sales. My goal is not just to list a home, but to provide the support and resources needed to settle an estate with as much ease as possible.

Whether you are reconsidering your options, need assistance with property maintenance, or simply have questions about the current market value, I am here to help without any pressure.

If you would like to have a quiet conversation about your goals for the property, please feel free to call me directly at [Your Phone Number].

Wishing you and your family peace and strength during this time.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
