RE: Notice of Expired Equity Release Offer

Dear [Homeowner Name],

Our records indicate that the formal offer to help you unlock the retirement equity in your home at [Property Address] has officially expired as of [Date].

We understand that timing is everything when it comes to financial planning. While your previous quote is no longer active, the opportunity to convert a portion of your home's value into tax-free cash for your retirement remains available to you.

Since your initial inquiry, market conditions or your property value may have changed, potentially qualifying you for a different payout amount or more favorable terms.

If you would like to reactivate your file or receive an updated equity assessment, please take one of the following steps:

- Call our retirement specialists at: [Phone Number]
- Visit our website to refresh your quote: [Website URL]
- Email us directly at: [Email Address]

We are here to help you secure the comfortable retirement you have worked hard for. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

[Your Name/Company Name]
