Dear [Recipient Last Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. It has been some time since we last spoke regarding your interest in the [Property Type/Neighborhood] market, and I wanted to personally reach out to reconnect.

The landscape for premium real estate has evolved recently, presenting unique opportunities that were not available during our previous conversations. I am currently overseeing several off-market listings and exclusive estates that align with the criteria we once discussed-properties that prioritize privacy, architectural significance, and long-term value.

I would appreciate the opportunity to provide you with a brief update on current market trends or to discuss any new investment goals you may have. If your preferences have shifted, I am happy to adjust my search to better suit your current requirements.

Are you available for a brief phone call or a coffee next week? I look forward to hearing from you and seeing how I can best assist you in your next acquisition.

Best regards,
