Dear [Client Name],

As the flowers begin to bloom, so does the real estate market. With the spring selling season officially underway, I wanted to provide you with an updated market analysis for your property and your neighborhood.

Spring is traditionally the most active time of year for real estate. This season, we are seeing several key trends:

- High Buyer Demand: A significant number of motivated buyers are entering the market looking for new inventory.
- Competitive Pricing: Properly priced homes are seeing quick offers and, in many cases, multiple bid scenarios.
- Inventory Levels: While more homes are being listed, the demand continues to outpace supply in our specific area.

Based on recent comparable sales in your immediate area, the estimated value of your home is currently between ${Lower Range} and ${Upper Range}.

Whether you are considering selling this year or are simply curious about your home's equity, I would be happy to provide a more detailed, in-person assessment of your property's unique features and upgrades.

Please feel free to call or text me at [Your Phone Number] if you have any questions about the current market or if you would like to discuss a strategy for your home.

Best regards,
