

Dear [Homeowner Name],

I noticed that your property at [Property Address] is no longer listed for sale on the market. I understand that this can be a frustrating and exhausting experience.

Selling a home is a major life transition, and it is completely normal to feel disappointed when things don't go as planned. You have likely dealt with constant showings, cleaning, and the uncertainty of what comes next, only to end up back at square one.

I am reaching out not to pressure you, but to offer a listening ear. Sometimes, a fresh perspective and a different approach are all that is needed to achieve the results you were hoping for. I would love to hear about your goals and the challenges you faced during the initial listing period.

If you are open to it, I would like to offer you a "Market Refresh" consultation. We can simply chat about the current market trends in your neighborhood and discuss how we can make the process easier for you if you decide to try again.

There is no obligation at all. Whether you want to relist soon or simply want to take a break, I am here to help in any way I can.

Wishing you the best,
