RE: Urgent Request for Emergency Relocation due to Safety and Security Concerns

Dear [Landlord or Property Manager Name],

I am writing to formally request an emergency relocation from my current residence at [Current Address/Unit Number] effective immediately. This request is being made due to significant and documented threats to my personal safety and security at this location.

The specific safety concerns include:

[Briefly describe the incidents, e.g., domestic violence, stalking, criminal activity at the premises, or harassment].

Due to these circumstances, I no longer feel safe residing in my current unit. I am requesting one of the following actions:

- Immediate transfer to a different available unit within your property portfolio that is in a secure and undisclosed location.
- Early termination of my lease agreement without penalty to allow me to seek safe housing elsewhere.

Attached to this letter, please find supporting documentation regarding these security concerns, such as [mention attachments: e.g., police reports, restraining orders, or a letter from a victim advocate].

I request a written response regarding this relocation request by [Date/Time]. I am eager to cooperate to ensure a swift and safe transition.

Thank you for your immediate attention to this urgent matter.

Sincerely,
