Subject: Export Control and Trade Sanctions Exemption Opinion Letter

Dear [Recipient Name],

This letter provides a formal regulatory opinion regarding the export of [Description of Product/Software/Technology], hereinafter referred to as "the Item," to [Destination Country/End-User].

1. Classification and Jurisdiction

The Item has been reviewed against the [e.g., Export Administration Regulations (EAR) / International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR)]. Based on its technical specifications, the Item is classified under Export Control Classification Number (ECCN) [Insert ECCN, e.g., EAR99 or 5A992].

2. Exemption/Exception Analysis

It is our professional opinion that the proposed transaction is exempt from formal licensing requirements based on the following criteria:

- Regulatory Exception: [Insert specific exception, e.g., License Exception ENC under 15 CFR § 740.17 or NLR - No License Required].
- End-Use Statement: The Item is intended for [Insert Specific Use]. This use does not fall under prohibited categories such as nuclear, chemical, or biological weaponry, or unauthorized maritime/aviation end-uses.
- Sanctions Screening: All parties involved in this transaction, including [List Parties], have been screened against the [e.g., Specially Designated Nationals (SDN) List and Entity List]. No matches were found.

3. Country-Specific Sanctions

The destination, [Country], is not currently subject to comprehensive territorial sanctions or embargoes that prohibit the export of this specific classification of goods.

4. Conclusion

Based on the information provided and current trade regulations, the export of the Item does not require an export license from the [e.g., Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS) / Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC)].

Disclaimer: This opinion is based on current regulations as of the date of this letter. Changes in law or the technical nature of the Item may void this assessment.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
