Dear [Referrer Name],

I am writing to sincerely thank you for referring [Potential Buyer Name] to me for their new home construction project. It is truly an honor that you trusted me enough to recommend my services to your friends/associates.

I have already reached out to them to discuss their vision for their new build, and I am excited about the possibility of helping them create their dream home from the ground up. I will be sure to keep you updated on our progress.

My business grows primarily through referrals from valued clients and partners like you. Your support is greatly appreciated and never taken for granted.

Thank you again for your confidence in my work.

Best regards,
