

Dear [Recipient Name],

Welcome home! Now that you have had a few days to settle into your new residence in [City/Neighborhood], I wanted to check in and see how the transition is going.

Moving is a significant undertaking, and I hope the process of unpacking and making the space your own is going smoothly. Please let me know if everything with the property is to your satisfaction or if there are any immediate questions I can answer for you.

As you get to know the area, remember that I am happy to provide recommendations for local services, restaurants, or community resources to help you feel at home.

I will follow up with you again in a few weeks, but in the meantime, please do not hesitate to reach out via phone or email if you need anything at all.

Wishing you much happiness in your new home.

Best regards,
