

Dear [Recipient Name],

Thank you for taking the time to meet with me briefly today for the walkthrough of [Property Address/Location]. It was a pleasure to see the space in person.

As we discussed, I understand that our visit was short and you may not have had the chance to examine every detail. To help you review the layout and features at your own pace, I have prepared a comprehensive virtual tour of the property.

You can access the virtual tour using the link below:

This digital version allows you to revisit any room and share the space with other stakeholders who could not attend the visit today. If you have any follow-up questions regarding the measurements, amenities, or next steps, please feel free to reach out.

I look forward to hearing your thoughts.

Best regards,
