Dear [Recipient Name],

It was a pleasure speaking with you recently regarding the current market value of your home at [Property Address]. I understand that while you may not be ready to move immediately, you are beginning to consider your options for future downsizing.

As promised, I have attached a detailed valuation report based on recent sales and current market trends in your neighborhood. This information should serve as a helpful baseline for your long-term financial planning.

Downsizing is a significant transition, and having an accurate picture of your home's equity is the first step in making that process smooth and stress-free. Whether you plan to move in six months or two years, I am here to help you navigate the timing and preparation required to get the best possible return on your investment.

If you have any questions about the report or would like to discuss what improvements might add the most value to your home before you eventually sell, please feel free to reach out.

I look forward to staying in touch and assisting you with your future plans.

Best regards,
