RE: LEGAL OPINION - APPLICATION OF ALTER EGO DOCTRINE TO [ENTITY NAME]

Dear [Recipient Name],

We have been requested to provide a legal opinion regarding whether the corporate veil of [Entity Name] (the "Company") may be pierced under the Alter Ego Doctrine to reach the assets of [Parent Company/Individual Shareholder] (the "Shareholder").

1. DOCUMENTS REVIEWED
In rendering this opinion, we have reviewed the following:

- Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company;
- Corporate minutes and resolutions;
- Financial statements and bank records;
- Contracts between the Company and the Shareholder;
- [Additional Documents].

2. LEGAL STANDARD
Under applicable law, a corporation is generally treated as a separate legal entity. To "pierce the corporate veil" via the Alter Ego Doctrine, it must be demonstrated that: (a) There is such unity of interest and ownership that the separate personalities of the corporation and the individual no longer exist; and (b) An inequitable result would follow if the acts are treated as those of the corporation alone.

3. ANALYSIS
Based on our review, we note the following facts:

- Corporate Formalities: The Company [has/has not] maintained separate minutes and held regular meetings.
- Commingling of Funds: There [is/is no] evidence that personal and corporate funds have been commingled.
- Capitalization: The Company appears to be [adequately/inadequately] capitalized for its intended business purpose.
- Control: The Shareholder exercises [total/standard] control over the daily operations of the Company.

4. OPINION
Based upon the foregoing, it is our legal opinion that: [Option A: There is a low risk that a court would pierce the corporate veil because corporate formalities have been strictly observed.] [Option B: There is a significant risk that the Alter Ego Doctrine may apply due to the commingling of assets and failure to maintain separate identities.]

5. LIMITATIONS
This opinion is limited to the laws of the State of [State] and is based on the facts provided to us as of this date.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
