Subject: Notice of Software Licensing Contamination and Breach of License Agreement

Dear [Recipient Name],

This letter serves as formal notice that [Company Name] is in breach of the [Name of Software Agreement] dated [Date of Agreement] regarding the use of [Name of Software/Product].

Based on recent technical audits, it has come to our attention that "license contamination" has occurred. Specifically, proprietary source code belonging to [Your Company Name] has been integrated or commingled with unauthorized third-party software or open-source components governed by [Insert License Type, e.g., GPL, AGPL] in a manner that violates Section [Insert Section Number] of our Agreement.

This contamination poses the following risks and violations:

1. Unauthorized sub-licensing or distribution of proprietary code.
2. Violation of restrictive use clauses.
3. Potential exposure of our intellectual property under "copyleft" requirements.

To remedy this breach, we demand that [Company Name] perform the following actions within [Number] business days:

- Cease all use and distribution of the contaminated software modules.
- Provide a full technical report detailing the extent of the integration.
- Perform a complete "clean room" segregation of our proprietary assets.
- Certify in writing that all unlicensed or infringing code has been removed.

Failure to cure this breach within the specified timeframe will result in the immediate termination of your license and may lead to legal action to protect our intellectual property rights, including seeking injunctive relief and monetary damages.

We await your immediate response regarding your plan for remediation.

Sincerely,
