Dear [Patient Name],

We are writing to provide you with the results of your recent annual well-woman examination and Pap test performed on [Date of Exam].

We are pleased to inform you that your Pap test results are normal. No abnormal cells were detected at this time.

Based on these results and current screening guidelines, your next routine screening is recommended in [Number] years. However, if you experience any new symptoms such as unusual bleeding, discharge, or pelvic pain before your next scheduled visit, please contact our office to schedule an appointment.

It was a pleasure seeing you. If you have any questions regarding these results, please feel free to call us at [Phone Number].

Sincerely,

[Provider Name/Signature]
