RE: Supplemental Letter of Intent - Acquisition of Intellectual Property for Litigation Support Systems

Dear [Contact Person Name],

This letter serves as a formal supplement to the original Letter of Intent dated [Date of Original LOI] regarding the acquisition of intellectual property assets related to [Specific Name of Litigation Support System/Software].

Based on recent due diligence and technical evaluations, [Your Company Name] proposes the following supplemental terms and clarifications:

- 1. Expanded Scope of Assets: In addition to the core source code and patents previously identified, this offer now includes all proprietary algorithms, technical documentation, user training manuals, and database schemas specifically optimized for high-volume legal discovery and case management.
- 2. Integration Support: The transaction shall include a transition period of [Number] months, during which the Seller's technical team will provide consulting services to ensure the seamless migration of the litigation support architecture into the Buyer's existing infrastructure.
- 3. Updated Purchase Price: In consideration of the expanded asset scope, the revised proposed purchase price is [Amount in Currency], payable according to the following schedule: [Details of payment milestones].
- 4. Representations and Warranties: The Seller confirms that the intellectual property is free from any litigation claims, encumbrances, or third-party infringement notices, specifically regarding legal-tech data processing standards.
- 5. Confidentiality: The terms of this supplemental letter remain subject to the existing Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) between both parties.

This letter is a non-binding expression of interest and does not create a legal obligation until a definitive Asset Purchase Agreement is executed. Please indicate your acknowledgment of these supplemental terms by signing below.

Sincerely,
