Dear [Name],

This letter serves as a formal demand for settlement regarding the commercial trucking accident that occurred on [Date] at [Location]. Based on our investigation, it is clear that multiple parties share liability for the damages sustained by our client.

I. Liability Overview

Evidence indicates that the collision was a direct result of negligence by the following parties:

- [Driver Name]: For failure to maintain a safe lookout and violation of FMCSA hours-of-service regulations.
- [Trucking Company]: For negligent hiring, training, and failure to maintain equipment.
- [Third Party/Loader]: For improper loading of cargo which contributed to the vehicle's instability.

II. Summary of Damages

Our client suffered significant injuries, including [List Injuries]. The following is a summary of the incurred and projected damages:

- Medical Expenses (To Date): $[Amount]
- Future Medical Requirements: $[Amount]
- Lost Wages and Loss of Earning Capacity: $[Amount]
- Pain and Suffering / Emotional Distress: $[Amount]

Total Calculated Damages: $[Total Amount]

III. Settlement Demand

To resolve this matter efficiently and avoid the costs of protracted litigation, our client is willing to release all named parties from further liability in exchange for a global settlement in the amount of:

[$Total Settlement Figure]

We propose the following allocation among the insurers (subject to negotiation):

- [Primary Carrier]: $[Amount]
- [Excess/Umbrella Carrier]: $[Amount]
- [Third Party Carrier]: $[Amount]

IV. Deadline

This offer shall remain open for [Number] days from the date of this letter. If we do not receive a written acceptance or a reasonable counter-offer by [Date], we will proceed with formal litigation against all responsible entities.

Sincerely,
