Re: Final Administrative Determination
Claim Number: [Claim Number]
Appeal Reference: [Appeal Reference Number]

Dear [Claimant Name],

This letter serves as the formal final determination regarding your appeal filed on [Date of Appeal] concerning the denial of [Description of Claim/Benefit].

The Appeals Committee has conducted a comprehensive de novo review of your entire claim file, including the original submission, the initial denial rationale, and all additional information provided during the appellate process.

Decision:
After careful consideration, the initial decision to deny your claim has been [Upheld/Overturned/Modified]. [Insert brief justification for the final decision based on specific policy or regulatory citations].

Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies:
This decision constitutes the final stage of the internal administrative review process. With the issuance of this letter, you have officially exhausted all available administrative remedies within [Organization Name]. No further internal appeals or hearings will be granted regarding this specific matter.

Right to Judicial Review:
Because you have exhausted your administrative remedies, you may now have the right to seek judicial review of this decision in a court of competent jurisdiction. Please be advised that strict statutes of limitations apply to filing a civil action. You should consult with legal counsel to determine the appropriate next steps and deadlines applicable to your jurisdiction.

Sincerely,

[Authorized Signature]
