RE: formal Notice of Harassment and Breach of Implied Covenant of Quiet Enjoyment

Dear [Landlord Name],

I am writing this letter to formally represent my grievances regarding your recent actions concerning my tenancy at [Your Rental Address].

Specifically, the following actions have occurred on [Date(s)]:

- [Describe incident 1, e.g., Unannounced entry into the premises]
- [Describe incident 2, e.g., Persistent phone calls outside of business hours]
- [Describe incident 3, e.g., Threats of eviction without legal cause]

These actions constitute a breach of the Implied Covenant of Quiet Enjoyment, which is my legal right to peace, comfort, and privacy within my home. Furthermore, these persistent behaviors are being documented as landlord harassment under [Local/State] law.

I hereby demand that you immediately cease and desist all forms of harassment. All future communication regarding my tenancy must be conducted in writing via [Email/Certified Mail]. Do not enter the premises without providing the legally required [Number] hours of notice, except in cases of extreme emergency.

Please consider this a formal notice. If these disturbances continue, I will be forced to seek legal remedies, which may include filing a police report, seeking an injunction, or pursuing damages in civil court.

I trust that this matter can be resolved immediately and that my right to quiet enjoyment will be respected moving forward.

Sincerely,
