RE: NOTICE OF FORMAL OBJECTION TO ASSET DISSIPATION

Dear [Name of Recipient],

This letter serves as formal notice regarding the suspected or imminent dissipation of assets belonging to [Corporate Entity Name].

It has come to our attention that the following actions are being taken or are contemplated: [List specific actions, e.g., unauthorized transfer of funds, sale of undervalued property, or unusual liquidation of inventory].

Be advised that these actions appear to be outside the ordinary course of business and may constitute a breach of fiduciary duty, fraudulent conveyance, or a waste of corporate assets. Such actions significantly prejudice the interests of [Name of Sender/Stakeholder/Creditor].

DEMAND IS HEREBY MADE that you immediately cease and desist from any further transfer, encumbrance, or disposal of corporate assets until [Condition for stopping, e.g., a formal accounting is provided / the pending litigation is resolved].

Please provide written confirmation by [Date] that the assets remain intact and that no further transfers will occur. Failure to provide such assurance will compel us to seek immediate legal remedies, including but not limited to, injunctive relief, the appointment of a receiver, and personal liability claims against the responsible officers and directors.

This letter is written without prejudice to any other rights or remedies available at law or in equity.

Sincerely,

[Your Signature]
