

NOTICE OF INTENT TO LEVY BANK ACCOUNT AND RIGHT TO A HEARING

Date: [Date]

TO:

[Judgment Debtor Name]

[Address]

[City, State, Zip Code]

RE:

Judgment Creditor: [Name of Creditor]

Court: [Name of Court]

Case Number: [Case Number]

Amount Due: $[Total Amount Owed]

URGENT LEGAL NOTICE

As a result of a judgment entered against you on [Date of Judgment] in the above-referenced case, you are hereby notified that the Judgment Creditor intends to levy your bank account(s) to satisfy the unpaid balance of the judgment.

The total amount currently due, including post-judgment interest and costs, is $[Amount].

Please be advised of the following:

- Bank Levy: A writ of execution may be issued to your financial institution directing them to freeze and turn over funds held in your accounts up to the amount of the judgment.
- Exemptions: Under state and federal law, certain funds may be exempt from levy (such as Social Security benefits, disability, or a minimum protected balance). You have the right to claim these exemptions.
- Right to a Hearing: You have the right to contest this action or claim exemptions by filing a written request for a hearing with the court within [Number] days of this notice.

To prevent this action, you must pay the full amount listed above or contact this office at [Phone Number] immediately to arrange a payment plan.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

[Name of Creditor or Attorney]

[Address]

[Phone Number]