Re: Importance of Estate Planning Post-Matter

Dear [Client Name],

It has been a privilege representing you in your family law matter. Now that we have reached a resolution, I am writing to recommend that you update or create your estate plan.

Significant life changes, such as a divorce or a change in family structure, often render existing wills and beneficiary designations obsolete. It is crucial to ensure that your assets, healthcare directives, and guardianship preferences reflect your current wishes and protect your future.

I highly recommend that you consult with [Name of Estate Planning Attorney] at [Law Firm Name]. They specialize in comprehensive estate planning and have assisted many of my clients with:

- Drafting new Wills and Trusts
- Updating Power of Attorney documents
- Setting up Healthcare Proxies
- Updating beneficiary designations on life insurance and retirement accounts

You can reach [Name of Estate Planning Attorney] at [Phone Number] or via email at [Email Address].

Taking this step will provide you with peace of mind as you begin this new chapter. If you have any questions regarding your completed family law file, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
