RE: Authorization for Infidelity Investigation and Evidence Gathering

Dear [Investigator Name/Agency Name],

I am writing to formally retain your services to conduct a private investigation regarding the suspected infidelity of my spouse, [Spouse's Name]. This investigation is being initiated to gather evidence for use in potential family law proceedings, including but not limited to [Divorce/Alimony/Child Custody] litigation.

The scope of the investigation should include:

- Surveillance of the subject's movements and interactions.
- Identification of any third parties involved.
- Documentation of activities through photographic or video evidence.
- A detailed written report of all findings and chronological logs.

Please ensure that all methods used during this investigation comply strictly with state and federal laws to ensure that any evidence obtained remains admissible in a court of law. I request that all communications regarding this matter be kept strictly confidential.

I have enclosed the required retainer fee of [Amount]. Please provide updates to me or my legal counsel, [Attorney Name], at [Phone Number/Email].

Sincerely,

[Signature]
