Dear [Client A] and [Client B]:

This letter confirms that [Law Firm Name] (the "Firm") has been asked to represent both [Client A] and [Client B] (collectively, the "Clients") in connection with [Description of Matter/Transaction].

1. Joint Representation

While your interests in this matter appear currently aligned, a conflict of interest may arise in the future. By signing this letter, you acknowledge that you have been informed of the potential risks of joint representation, including the fact that the Firm cannot advocate for one client against the other in this matter.

2. Confidentiality and Privilege

In a joint representation, there is no expectation of confidentiality between the clients. Any information provided to the Firm by one client regarding this matter may be shared with the other client. However, the attorney-client privilege remains effective against third parties.

3. Advance Waiver of Future Conflicts

You agree that the Firm may, in the future, represent other clients in matters adverse to you, provided those matters are not substantially related to our work for you. Furthermore, should a dispute arise between [Client A] and [Client B], the Firm may be required to withdraw from representing one or both of you. You hereby waive any conflict of interest that might arise from such future circumstances.

4. Independent Legal Advice

You are encouraged to consult with independent counsel before signing this waiver to ensure you fully understand the implications of joint representation and this advance waiver.

If you agree to the terms outlined above, please sign and return a copy of this letter.

Sincerely,

[Attorney Name]
