Re: Advance Waiver of Potential Conflicts of Interest

Dear [Client Name],

Thank you for choosing [Law Firm Name] to represent you in connection with [Description of Matter].

As we discussed, our firm represents many other clients and entities. It is possible that in the future, an issue may arise where our representation of another client may be adverse to your interests in a matter unrelated to the work we are performing for you. To proceed with our representation, we require your consent to waive potential future conflicts.

By signing this letter, you agree that [Law Firm Name] may represent other current or future clients in matters that are adverse to you or your affiliates, provided that:

- The matter is not substantially related to the work we are performing for you;
- We have not obtained confidential information from you that could be used to your disadvantage in the other matter; and
- We implement appropriate ethical walls to protect your information if necessary.

You understand that this waiver means we would not be disqualified from representing another client even if that client's interests are directly adverse to yours in litigation, transactions, or other legal proceedings, subject to the conditions above.

We encourage you to consult with independent counsel before signing this waiver if you have any concerns regarding its implications.

Please indicate your consent by signing and returning a copy of this letter.

Sincerely,

[Attorney Name]
