Re: Advance Waiver of Potential Future Conflicts of Interest

Dear [Client Contact Name],

This letter follows our discussion regarding [Law Firm Name]'s representation of [Client Name] ("the Client") in connection with [Description of Current Matter].

As we discussed, [Law Firm Name] represents many other entities and individuals. It is possible that in the future, an existing or new client may request that we represent them in a matter that is adverse to you. Such matters could include, but are not limited to, litigation, business transactions, or regulatory proceedings.

By signing this letter, you agree that [Law Firm Name] may represent other clients in matters that are adverse to you, provided that:

- The matter is not substantially related to our current or past legal work for you;
- The firm's attorneys working on your matters do not possess confidential information obtained from you that could be used to your disadvantage in the adverse matter; and
- We implement appropriate ethical walls and screening procedures to protect your confidential information.

This waiver is prospective and broad in scope. You understand that this means we may represent a party with interests directly adverse to yours in the future without seeking additional consent at that time, so long as the conditions above are met.

You are encouraged to consult with independent counsel regarding the implications of this waiver before signing. If you agree to these terms, please sign and return a copy of this letter.

Sincerely,

[Partner Name]
