Re: Limited Scope Advance Conflict Waiver - [Industry Name] Sector

Dear [Client Contact Name],

This letter follows our discussions regarding [Law Firm Name]'s representation of [Client Name] ("Client") in connection with [Description of Current Matter].

As we have discussed, our firm represents many clients in the [Industry Name] industry. Because of our extensive work in this sector, it is possible that we may be asked to represent other current or future clients in matters that are adverse to [Client Name], provided those matters are not substantially related to our specific work for you.

1. Scope of Waiver

By signing this letter, Client agrees that [Law Firm Name] may represent other parties in the [Industry Name] industry in matters involving [Client Name], including but not limited to: [Specific examples, e.g., commercial negotiations, regulatory filings, or administrative proceedings].

2. Limitations

This waiver is limited to matters that meet the following criteria:

- (a) The matter is not substantially related to any legal services the firm is currently performing or has previously performed for Client.
- (b) The matter does not involve the use of any confidential information obtained from Client to Client's disadvantage.

3. Ethical Walls

In the event the firm undertakes a matter adverse to Client under this waiver, we will implement internal "ethical walls" and screening procedures to ensure that the legal team working for Client and the legal team working on the adverse matter do not share confidential information.

4. Independent Advice

Client acknowledges that it has been advised of the potential risks of providing this advance waiver and has had the opportunity to consult with independent counsel before signing this document.

Please confirm your agreement by signing and returning a copy of this letter.

Sincerely,

[Partner Name]
[Law Firm Name]
