RE: Joint Representation Disclosure and Conflict Waiver - [Case Name/Matter Number]

Dear [Client 1] and [Client 2]:

This letter confirms that [Law Firm Name] (the "Firm") has been asked to represent both [Client 1] and [Client 2] as co-plaintiffs in the commercial litigation matter against [Adverse Party Name].

1. Joint Representation

While your interests currently appear aligned, a conflict of interest may arise during litigation. Rules of professional conduct generally prohibit a firm from representing multiple clients if their interests are directly adverse or if the representation of one client is materially limited by the responsibilities to another.

2. Information Sharing and Confidentiality

In a joint representation, there is no expectation of confidentiality between the clients. Any information provided by one client relating to the litigation will be shared with the other client. However, all such information remains protected by attorney-client privilege against third parties.

3. Potential Conflicts

Potential conflicts may include, but are not limited to:

- Disagreements regarding settlement terms or strategy.
- Differing claims for damages or allocation of recovery.
- Discovery of facts that favor one client over the other.

4. Withdrawal

If an actual conflict arises that cannot be resolved, the Firm may be required to withdraw from representing one or both of you. In such an event, you may be required to obtain new, independent legal counsel at your own expense.

5. Waiver and Consent

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have been advised of the risks of joint representation, have had the opportunity to consult with independent counsel regarding this waiver, and consent to the Firm representing both parties in this matter.

Sincerely,

[Attorney Name]
[Law Firm Name]

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND CONSENT

I have read this letter and understand the potential conflicts of interest. I hereby waive any such conflicts and consent to joint representation.
