Re: Joint Representation Conflict of Interest Waiver

Dear [Name of Corporate Representative] and [Name of Shareholder]:

This letter confirms that [Law Firm Name] has been asked to represent both [Name of Entity] (the "Company") and [Name of Shareholder] (the "Shareholder") as co-plaintiffs in the matter of [Case Name/Reference Number] against [Name of Defendant(s)].

1. Joint Representation

While the interests of the Company and the Shareholder currently appear aligned, a conflict of interest may arise during litigation. Ethical rules require us to disclose the implications of joint representation and obtain your informed consent.

2. Potential Conflicts

Potential conflicts may include, but are not limited to:

- Disagreements regarding settlement terms or strategy.
- Differing claims for damages or allocation of recovery.
- Facts that may benefit one party but prejudice the other.

3. Confidentiality and Privilege

In a joint representation, there is no expectation of confidentiality between the co-clients. Information shared by the Company with us may be shared with the Shareholder, and vice versa. However, our communications remain privileged against third parties.

4. Withdrawal

If an actual conflict arises that cannot be resolved, we may be required to withdraw from representing one or both parties. In such an event, you may need to retain separate legal counsel at additional expense.

5. Consent

By signing below, you acknowledge that you have been advised of the risks, have had the opportunity to consult independent counsel regarding this waiver, and consent to [Law Firm Name] representing both parties simultaneously.

Sincerely,

[Attorney Name]
[Law Firm Name]
