RE: Notice of Joint Representation and Conflict Waiver for Estate Planning

Dear [Client 1 Name] and [Client 2 Name],

This letter confirms that you have asked [Law Firm Name] to represent both of you in connection with your estate planning. This joint representation will include the preparation of [Wills, Trusts, Powers of Attorney, etc.].

1. Duty of Confidentiality and Information Sharing

In a joint representation, there is no expectation of confidentiality between the two of you. Any information provided by one client may be shared with the other client. If one of you asks me to keep information secret from the other, I will be unable to do so and may be required to withdraw from representing both of you.

2. Potential Conflicts of Interest

While your interests currently appear to be aligned, conflicts can arise regarding the distribution of assets, the selection of fiduciaries, or rights to marital property. If a serious conflict of interest arises during this process that cannot be resolved, I will be required to withdraw from representing both of you to avoid a breach of my ethical duties.

3. Waiver

By signing this letter, you acknowledge that you have been informed of the potential risks of joint representation. You waive any conflict of interest arising from this joint representation and authorize me to share all information relevant to your estate planning with both of you.

Please sign and return the enclosed copy of this letter to indicate your consent.

Sincerely,

[Attorney Name]

[Law Firm Name]
