RE: Joint Representation and Conflict of Interest Waiver

Dear [Spouse 1 Name] and [Spouse 2 Name],

You have asked [Law Firm Name] to represent both of you in your claims for personal injuries arising out of the incident on [Date of Incident].

Under the rules of professional conduct, a lawyer generally cannot represent multiple clients if their interests are adverse to one another. While your interests appear aligned at this time, potential conflicts may arise during a joint representation. These include:

- Confidentiality: There is no expectation of confidentiality between the two of you. Information shared by one spouse with the attorney may be shared with the other spouse.
- Settlement Allocation: In the event of a global settlement offer, you must agree on how the funds are divided between your respective claims.
- Differing Claims: One spouse may have a larger claim or different injuries, which could lead to disagreements regarding the value of each case.
- Withdrawal: If a serious conflict develops that cannot be resolved, this firm may be required to withdraw from representing both of you.

By signing this letter, you acknowledge that you have been informed of these potential conflicts and you waive any conflict of interest regarding our joint representation. You agree that we may represent both of you simultaneously in this matter.

Sincerely,

[Attorney Name]

[Law Firm Name]

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND WAIVER

I have read this letter, understand the potential conflicts of interest, and agree to joint representation.
